Part IV – Beneficiary Change

If you name a minor child (under age 18) as beneficiary, complete the box at the end of this Part IV for a Custodian under the Uniform Transfers to Minors Act. A benefit CANNOT be paid directly to a child under age 18, but must be paid to a court appointed conservator or a Custodian for the child’s benefit until age 21. If your beneficiary is under age 21, but at least 18, the benefit may be paid to the beneficiary if no conservator or Custodian is named but you may still name a Custodian if you prefer that to an outright distribution. The Custodian is required to transfer funds under the Custodian’s control to the child when the child turns 21. If, by the time for distribution, the beneficiary reaches age 18 (or 21, if you indicate that you want a Custodian to that age), the distribution will be made to the beneficiary rather than the Custodian.

If you have a will that creates a trust, and you want that trust to be the beneficiary, enter “Trust under Will” in the box for the “First Name” for the Primary Beneficiary in Part IV. If your will creates more than one trust, identify the trust to which the benefit should be paid.

If you have created a trust during your lifetime (not under your will), and you want the trust to be the beneficiary, enter the name of the trust in the box for the “First Name” for the Primary Beneficiary in Part IV. Enter the name of the current trustee in the box for “Last Name”. Enter the current trustee’s mailing address, and then enter the date the trust was created under “Date of Birth”. If the Trust has a tax identification number, enter it in the box for “Social Security Number”.

If you name your estate as beneficiary, the personal representative, an administrator or an executor must be appointed before the benefit can be paid. If you choose to name your estate enter “My Estate” in the box for the “First Name” for the Primary Beneficiary in Part IV.

The amount of any pre-retirement death benefit assigned to a current or former spouse or partner in a civil union, as cobeneficiary(ies), which you provide in Part V, will be deducted from the amount available to the beneficiary(ies) you designate below, provided that if you are married or subsequently become married, your spouse consents to such designation(s).

Types of Beneficiaries

- A. Primary Beneficiary – Person(s) to receive the death benefit payable upon the member's death.
- B. Contingent Beneficiary – Person(s) to receive the death benefit payable upon the member's death if the primary beneficiary(ies) dies before the member.

If you name multiple primary (or contingent) beneficiaries, the proceeds will be split equally among your primary beneficiaries who survive you or, if none of your primary beneficiaries survive you, equally among your contingent beneficiaries who survive you, unless you instruct a different percentage split on this form.

If your primary beneficiary(ies) dies before you, and you have not named a contingent beneficiary, the proceeds will be paid to your estate.

If you elect a form of benefit that provides a term certain benefit after your death and the term certain payments have not been completed at your death, the “actuarial equivalent” value of the remaining monthly payments will be paid to your estate if no beneficiary is living at your death. If one or more beneficiaries survive you, the remaining monthly payments will be made to such beneficiaries after your death. If the term certain payments have not been completed at the death of your last surviving beneficiary, the “actuarial equivalent” value of the remaining monthly payments will be paid in a lump-sum to the estate of your last surviving beneficiary.

Beneficiary Designation: If your Beneficiary is under age 18 or if you want a Custodian for a child age 18-21, complete the Primary Beneficiary Information and the Custodian Information below.
